Andrew Traver, DPT, CSCS, MBA

Andrew graduated from the University of Montana with a Doctorate in Physical Therapy and Masters in Business Administration in the spring of 2022. Prior to receiving his DPT, Andrew attended Lewis & Clark College where he earned his Bachelor of Arts in Economics ('15) and played football and baseball. While in Oregon, Andrew became a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and assisted the strength and conditioning program at Lewis & Clark as well as provided personal training. He has experience treating orthopedic injuries, pre/post-operative care, health and wellness, return to activity/sport, and functional strengthening and conditioning. He enjoys treating patients across the lifespan, helping them realize their potential through increased performance and education regarding physical activity.

Outside of physical therapy, Andrew and his wife, Kylee, explore the beautiful landscapes of Montana through camping, hiking, paddle boarding, and the help of their three fur-children. Andrew and Kylee are expecting their first 'human' child in the summer of 2022!
